Connecticut Authors Trail- Frida Berrigan

New London, CT, Monday, August 8, 2016, 5:30-7:00PM– The Public Library of New London will be participating in the Connecticut Authors Trail and presenting local author Frida Berrigan, columnist for Waging Nonviolence and the author of It Runs in the Family: On Being Raised by Radicals and Growing into Rebellious Motherhood. Berrigan, wife, and mother of three children living in New London, will be discussing her book which is about how to raise thoughtful, compassionate, fearless young people committed to social and political change. Her book will discuss avoiding the wrong types of discipline as well as creating lasting and meaningful bulwarks between children and the violence endemic in our culture.
