Third Thursday New London Art Featuring Artist Edeltraud Huller

New London, CT, June 16, 2016 - The Public Library of New London Library invites the public to attend the Third Thursday New London Art Walk every two months, check out a featured artist and connect with our community. This month's featured artist is Edeltraud Huller whose works are in collections worldwide and will take place Thursday, June 16, from 5:30 – 7:00 PM (5:30- 6:30 PM talk 6:30-7:00 PM question and answers).

Edeltraud Huller was born and raised in East Berlin, Germany and moved to Massachusetts in 1963 where she raised her family. Many of her works are inspired by music, literature and sound. Huller uses linen, sand and acrylic on canvas, often utilizing a limited, monochromatic vocabulary. She is known for her mixed media collages, works on paper, woodcuts, and works in stone, metal and clay.

Self taught, Huller's works have been exhibited for years in Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York City galleries, including the Delaware Fine Arts Museum Gallery, and in permanent collection at the New Britain Museum, Connecticut. Her works will be on display at the Public Library of New London until July 16.
