Facebook Basics

New London, CT, July 25, 2017 – Are you connected yet? The Public Library of New London is facilitating a Facebook workshop to take all of the confusion and frustration out of the popular widely used social media platform. Join us Tuesday, July 25 from 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM and learn how to open and manage a Facebook account, search for and reconnect with friends and family, set up your privacy and recovery settings, edit your personal profile, create posts, and stay connected! We will take a photo of you and help you upload it to your account. You may choose to bring in your own favorite photo (maximum of 3) to add to your account.

In order to take this class you will need a basic working knowledge of computers and a working email account. If you do not have an email account yet, please stop by the library during any of our open hours and we will assist you in creating one.

Seats are limited. Registration is required.

For more information or to register, please contact the Reference Desk at 860-447-1411 x5, or go to the library's website at www.plnl.org
