New London History Series with Sally Ryan

New London, CT, Monday, October 1, 2018 – Stop by the library's community room at 7pm on Mondays to learn about New London with city historian Sally Ryan, New London's first and now retired Municipal Historian. This popular series consists of multiple sessions that will each cover a different historical time period in New London. The series will conclude on November 5.

Oct. 1—The Revolutionary War
Oct. 15—Whaling 1820-1860
Oct. 22—Railroads and Industrial Revolution
Nov. 5—1938 Hurricane to the Present

"If you know your history, you know your roots. You value who you are and where you came from." –Sally Ryan.

The event is free and open to all. Registration is not required. For more information, please contact the Reference Desk at 860-447-1411 x5, or go to the library's website at www.plnl.org
