New London, CT Saturday, April 22, 2017 2:30 to 4:00 PM – The Public Library of New London will be partnering with Sangam to bring the public an Indian Fashion Show like never seen before on Saturday, April 22 at 2:30 PM.

The mission of Sangam is to preserve and maintain the heritage of the people of Indian origin living in the State of Connecticut by organizing and promoting literary, cultural, educational, religious, social, and community activities.

Like opening a door to India's culture, take a trip to India through the richness of its regional outfits, unchanged for centuries. Adult and children models will be dressed in their regional wear. The show will conclude with a selection of the most beautiful fashion in Indian culture: Bridal wear that will leave you mesmerized.

Event is free and open to the public. No registration required but appreciated to ensure proper seating arrangements.
