Social Welfare: Learn About Resources Available in New London

New London, CT, Wednesday, September 20, 2017 2:00 – 3:00 PM – A representative from South Eastern CT SCORE will be at the Library to talk about the resources available to New London residents through SCORE. This informational event is for anyone who is in the early stages of running a business or organization, and will be held in the Adult Reading Area Wednesday, September 20 from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM. The Public Library of New London extends the invitation to friends or family of anyone who is starting their own business or organization, persons who are in the occupation of helping others find resources to advance in the business world or anyone who would like to expand their knowledge base of community resources for future reference. SCORE is an organization that mentors America's small business owners and operators and can help people dreaming about starting their own small business or those looking to grow their businesses.

New London, CT, Wednesday, October 18, 2017 2:00 – 3:00 PM - Jason Martin from New London's Thames Valley Council for Community Action (TVCCA) will be at the library to talk about Social Welfare Resources available in New London and specifically through TVCCA. The Public Library of New London extends the invitation to this informational event to friends or family of anyone in need, persons who are already in the occupation of helping others find resources or anyone who would like to expand their knowledge base of community resources for future reference. TVCCA operates many beneficial programs such as the energy assistance program for heating supplemental assistance through the winter, rental assistance, childcare options, Food and Nutrition WIC program, senior assistance programs, employment opportunities and case management.
