

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF NEW LONDON
63 Huntington Street, New London CT 06320

For Immediate Release

Contact: Michele Staino
Head of Youth Services
Public Library of New London
63 Huntington Street
New London, CT 06320
(860) 447-1411
mbelanger@plnl.org

New London, CT - The Public Library of New London is hosting a variety of programs during the week of April 15th (Spring Break) for children of all ages.

On Sunday, April 15 from 1:30 to 3:00 pm families can make their own haiku poem craft in honor of National Poetry Month. Kids will create a yarn flower and learn how to write their own haiku.

On Tuesday, April 17 at 12:30 pm children of all ages can make a planter using recycled materials and plant a seed in honor of Earth Day.

On Thursday, April 19 at 10:30 am children 3 to 5 years old can attend Creative Movement with the Eastern Connecticut Ballet. This 45 minute program will consist of a story and 35 minutes of movement. Children must sign up for this program in advance, space is limited.

On Thursday, April 19 and Friday, April 20 the library is being taken over by pirates! Children in 1st to 6th grade can use their detective skills to locate One-Eyed Jack's treasure chest and find the key to unlock it. Each time slot is grade specific and children must register for this program, space is limited.

Please visit the Library's website (www.plnl.org) or call (860)447-1411 for more information.