On Friday, June 15 from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM, the Public Library of New London is hosting the First Annual New London Veterans Resource Fair in the Community Room at the library. New London Veterans Affairs along with representatives from various local agencies will be there to provide information on local resources and services available to veterans. All persons who have served in the U.S. Military are invited to stop in and learn what services are available! This event is sponsored by the Public Library of New London and New London Veteran Affairs.
