Thames Society of Paranormal Investigation, based in Groton, CT will be visiting our library Saturday to present their findings of local hauntings in Eastern Connecticut. Join us to see if you've been to any of these haunted places and find out what exactly was discovered.

Join the Thames Society of Paranormal Investigations Saturday, October 21 at 2:00 PM - TSPI on a journey through their case files of Eastern Connecticut's most tantalizing haunts! TSPI is a paranormal research team located out of Southeastern Connecticut who conducts confidential and objective investigations while striving for tangible measurable evidence to provide their clients with answers.
