New London, CT - The Public Library of New London will be hosting Sally Ryan's New London History Series Monday's 7:00 PM – 8:30PM, September 12 – October 17, 2017, in the library's community room. Each week Sally Ryan will take the community through a different time period of New London's great historical moments beginning with the CT Colony and Pequot War through to the present day.

Sally Ryan is New London's first and only municipal historian. Sally works with a lot of different historical organizations and is involved with just about anything that has to do with the city's history. Sally has been the city's municipal historian since 1988, and can answer questions regarding New London's history.

Sept. 12—The CT Colony and Pequot War
Sept. 19—New London's Early Years: 1646 –1775
Sept. 26—The Revolutionary War
Oct. 3—Whaling 1820-1860
Oct. 10—Railroads and Industrial Revolution
Oct. 17—1938 Hurricane to the Present

Although there's nothing quite like an in-person encounter, Sally Ryan's DVD's are available at the reference desk for patron's to check-out.
